NOTE.—1. The Management should construct a suitable building for housing the school very early at their own cost.

2. Arrangements should be made to house the school temporarily, until the proposed building is constructed, the rent, if any, being met entirely from the funds of the Management.

3. The Management has also to meet other charges such as Travelling Allowance, Aided School Provident Fund Contribution, etc.

FINANCIAL SECRETARIAT

Exempting mothers from executing Security Bonds with sureties in respect of Compassionate Gratuity.

READ—

Government Order No. Fl. 859-900—S. & A. 466-30-2, dated the 4th August 1931, directing that whenever payment of a compassionate gratuity is sanctioned to the guardian of the minor heir of a deceased employee a security bond should, unless otherwise specified in the order of sanction, be invariably got executed by the payee and a solvent person before payment is made.

2. Government Order No. Fl. 2467-70—G. F. 78-41—8, dated the 2nd October 1942, delegating to the Comptroller the power to waive the production of security bonds in cases in which the amount of compassionate gratuity payable is less than Rs. 150 and the same is payable to the parents of the minors only.

3. Letter No. 867—Pen. dated the 16th March 1946, from the Comptroller, recommending in the circumstances mentioned that mothers who are the natural guardians of the minor heirs be exempted from executing security bonds irrespective of the amount of gratuity payable.

ORDER NO. FL. 915-80—S. & A. 149-45-2, DATED BANGALORE, THE 30TH JULY 1946.

It has been explained by the Comptroller that in actual practice it is very difficult for a widow with minor children to produce the security bonds for obtaining payment of compassionate gratuity. As mothers are the natural guardians of minor children, Government are pleased to direct that in such cases payments may be authorised by the Comptroller on the execution of a simple security bond by the mother herself without calling for production of security bonds with sureties, unless for any reasons he considers that in any particular case, proper sureties should be obtained.

Necessary amendment to the Appendix Q of the Mysore Service Regulations will be issued separately.
